

Business English: Talking About Risks and Concerns B2

I. Unscramble the capitalized word to complete the sentence.

1. – So, can we just ship the order this afternoon?

– I wish we could, but the KTICRY part is that customs still needs the packing list and signed invoice, and we don't have them ready yet.

2. – So what's the problem?

– Well, the main WABDRACK is that the platform looks good, but it doesn't work well with the tools we already use.

3. – Do you think we're ready to launch it next Monday?

– Well, my only NCROCEN is that we still haven't fully tested the landing page on mobile, and that's where a lot of our traffic is coming from.

4. – I thought the boxes for this order were delivered this morning.

– Yeah, the USIES is that a lot of them came in damaged, so now we're short.
