1. Read-Aloud Feature

Julie and Sam are discussing how to present a read-aloud feature, but the real problem is that it does not work on many older school tablets.

- Maybe we should change the photo at the top of the page. Right now, it doesn't really show who the read-aloud feature is for.
- Okay, look, I think we're get/ getting/ got sidetracked. The real issue here is that the feature doesn't work properly on older tablets. A different photo isn't going to fix that. Half the schools we work with are still using older devices, so the question is: what do we do about that?
