

7 Business English Idioms for Difficult Situations at Work

back to square one

having to start again

hit a wall

to stop making progress

weather the storm

to get through a difficult time

throw in the towel

to give up

keep your head

above water

to just manage when things are difficult or there is too much work face an uphill battle to deal with a very difficult situation

be a blessing in disguise to seem bad at first, but turn out well